THE NORTH BORNEO STRAITS TIFFIN

Our timeless tiffin draws inspiration from its north Borneo history of the land and the convergence of old trade routes of the East and West, resulting in the renowned Straits cuisine. Land Below the Wind authored by Agnes Newton Keith in 1939, completes your night with its humour and pervading charm of the then-North Borneo country and its people.

VENUE In-villa | TIME 7:00pm | RM300 nett per person

THE BAJAU LAUT BEACH BARBECUE

Inspired by Mat Salleh and his rebellion on Pulau Gaya, this beachfront experience draws from his Bajau Suluk ethnicity. Fresh bounty from land and sea grilled over hot coals served with vegetables and delicacies celebrates the cuisine of these sea-faring tribes. Wander the twinkling night sky through a telescope and pay homage to their nomadic nature.

VENUE Malohom Bay | TIME 7:00pm | One couple daily | RM410 nett per person

THE BORNEO CULINARY JOURNEY

Explore the depths of Sabahan cuisine with a cooking class hosted by our skilled chef. Experience an introduction to local ingredients and fresh produce followed by an interactive cooking session to provide insights into authentic recipes handed down over generations from various ethnic groups. The journey culminates with a communal-style tasting. Inclusions: Introduction to ingredients, cooking class, food tasting, recipes and certificate of completion.
